

The Nobility, Gentry, and others, Travelling between Holyhead, Bristol, and Bath, are most respectfully informed, That

A New COACH, to carry Six Inside Passengers, three Times a Week, through Bridgnorth, Kidderminster, Worcester, and Gloucester to Bristol, begins going on Monday, August 24, 1779, to set out from the Raven Inn, in Shrewsbury, and White-Hart Inn, in Broad-Street, Bristol, every Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, at Five o'Clock in the Morning; both Coaches lie at the Hop-Pole Inn, in Worcester, that Night, and get to Bristol and Shrewsbury the next Day. Each Passenger to pay 1*l.* 10*s.* and so in proportion to any Part of the Road; to be allowed 14*lb.* Weight of Luggage, all above to pay 2*d.* per lb.

The above Coach meets the Holyhead Coach at Shrewsbury, every Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday Evenings, so that Passengers may depend on being conveyed to and from Holyhead to Bristol and Bath, without Delay.

The Holyhead Coach to Shrewsbury, sets out Monday, Wednesday, and Friday Mornings; and from Shrewsbury to Holyhead the same Days. Fare 2*l.* 2*s.* and Luggage 2*d.* per lb.

The Proprietors humbly solicit the Patronage and Support of the Public in general, as nothing in their Powers shall be wanting to accommodate them equal to any Road.

N. B. Not to be answerable for any Plate, Writings, &c. or any Parcel above 5*l.* Value, unless entered and paid for accordingly. Performed by
